

Selection Rules “Awards for young author”

The selection of prizes for the best work presented as Oral Communication and Poster will be made by the Scientific Committee of ICDS12. Can only be submitted to this competition the applicants who meet the following requirements:

- The candidates must have less than 35 years old and shall be registered at the Conference with the fee paid.
- Only original works shall be accepted. Works that have been presented at other meetings or published in scientific journals are not eligible to apply.
- The authors of papers in a position to apply for the competition “Awards for young authors”, who have been selected by SC of ICDS12 for presentation as Oral Communication in addition to the extended abstract written in English shall send to the secretariat a file (pdf and word) with the full text of the work, written in one of two official languages of the Conference by May 15.
- The authors of papers in a position to apply for “Awards for young authors”, who have been selected by SC of ICDS12 for Poster Presentation in addition to the extended abstract written in English shall send to the secretariat a file (pdf) with the poster according the Rules for Poster presentation, written in one of the two official languages of the Conference by May 15.
- Among the works candidates for the prizes presented at the Conference will be selected by the jury the Best Work presented by young authors in each one of the two modalities.
- For the selection the jury will take in consideration the following criteria indicated in descending order of valorization: Scientific and technical value, innovation, application and practical interest e quality of presentation.
- The announcement of authors winner will be made at the Closing Session of the Conference